IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, DISTRICT OF UTAH, CENTRAL DIVISION

EXCITEMENT DIETETICS, LLC, a Utah limited liability company; and R. WALKER
COMPANIES, LLC,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

WILLIAM PATRICK TILMAN, an individual;
DONALD "SCOTT" STEVENSON, an individual; TYSON QUICK, an individual;
TYLER QUICK, an individual; and JOHN
DOES 1–20,

Defendants.

DECLARATION OF JOSHUA L. LEE

Case No. 2:12-cv-00380-RS

Judge Robert J. Shelby

I, Joshua L. Lee, of the law firm of Bennett Tueller Johnson & Deere, hereby state as follows:

1. I am an attorney at the law firm of Bennett Tueller Johnson & Deere.
2. My firm represents the Plaintiffs in the above-entitled case. I am over the age of eighteen and I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth in this Declaration.

3. In or about May 2012, I had my assistant, Candice Montoya, order a bottle of “Phenphedrine” from an eBay seller identified as “tedious_bear.” The bottle states that it is a “hardcore weight loss supplement.” I delivered several pictures of the product to Yoon Kim for his inspection.

4. In investigating this matter, I caused a subpoena to be served on eBay. In response, eBay produced an account information sheet, which indicated the following:

- a. The account was owned by Tilman;
- b. The current username “tedious_bear” was designated in June 2011;
- c. The previous username had been “bill_tilman”;

A copy of the account information sheet is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

5. The eBay response also included a spreadsheet indicating that the tedious_bear account had been used to sell Phenphedrine and Apidexin – indeed, the account had been used almost exclusively for that purpose since early 2011. A copy of the spreadsheet is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

6. In response to a subpoena, Paypal produced business records pertaining to the Tilman account, which indicated that the Tilman Paypal account was associated with a Chase bank account no. xxxxxxxxxxxx4162 (the “Chase Account”).

7. In response to a subpoena, Chase provided business records indicating that the Chase Account had been opened by Scott. A copy of the account opening information is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

8. On March 22, 2013, Plaintiffs served written discovery on Donald “Scott” Stevenson (“Scott”) and Tyson Quick (“Tyson”), including requests for admission. A copy of the requests sent to Scott is attached hereto as Exhibit D, and a copy of the requests sent to Tyson is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

9. Scott and Tyson did not serve responses to the written discovery, including the requests for admission, and more than 30 days has passed.

I declare under criminal penalty of the State of Utah that the foregoing is true and correct.

EXECUTED this 4 day of June, 2013.

PLAINTIFFS' FIRST SET OF WRITTEN DISCOVERY TO
DEFENDANT DONALD "SCOTT" STEVENSON

Case No. 2:12-cv-00380-RS

Judge Robert J. Shelby

Magistrate Judge Evelyn J. Furse

Pursuant to Rules 33, 34 and 36 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiffs Excitement Dietetics, LLC and R. Walker Companies, LLC, by and through counsel, hereby submits to Defendant Donald Scott Stevenson the following First Set of Written Discovery (referred to hereinafter as the "Requests"). You are required within thirty (30) days of service hereof to respond, under oath and in writing, to each of the following interrogatories, and to produce for inspection and copying at the offices of BENNETT TUELLER JOHNSON & DEERE, 3165 East Millrock Drive, Suite 500, Salt Lake City, Utah 84121, the documents described in the following requests for production of documents.

You are also required to respond in writing to the specific enumerated Requests for Admission within thirty (30) days of service hereof. The matters contained in the Requests for Admission shall be deemed admitted unless said responses are served within thirty (30) days after service of the same.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. The terms "Defendant," "Donald," "Scott," "you," or "your" shall refer to Defendant Tyler Quick, his agents, attorneys, consultants, investigators or other representatives, and all other persons acting on his behalf.
2. The term "Excitement" shall refer to Plaintiff Excitement Dietetics, LLC.
3. The term "RWC" shall refer to Plaintiff R. Walker Companies, LLC.
4. The term "Plaintiffs" shall refer collectively to Excitement and RWC.
5. The term "Tyler" shall refer to Defendant Tyler Quick.
6. The term "Tilman" shall refer to Defendant William Patrick Tilman.
7. The term "Tyson" shall refer to Defendant Tyson Quick.
8. The term "Mesiab" shall refer to Kevin Mesiab.
9. The term "Phenphedrine Mark" shall refer to the federally registered trademark PHENPHEDRINE® (U.S. Reg. No. 3,814,457).
10. The term "Apidexin Mark" shall refer to the federally registered trademark APIDEXIN® (U.S. Reg. No. 3,683,090).

11. The term “Marks” shall refer to the Phenphedrine Mark and Apidexin Mark collectively.

12. You are required to answer these Requests to the extent of all information that is available or may be available to you or any person, firm, corporation, or other entity acting on your behalf and not merely information within your personal knowledge. If any information called for by any of these Requests is not available in the full detail requested, such Request shall be deemed to require you to set forth the information related to the subject matter of the Request in such detail as is available, including and describing the method by which any estimate is made.

13. These Requests are deemed to be continuing discovery requests to the fullest extent contemplated by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. With respect to any of the following Requests as to which you, after answering, acquire additional information, knowledge, or documents, you are requested to provide further answers to such Requests immediately after acquiring such additional information, knowledge or documents.

14. If you believe that all or any part of these Requests would invade any privilege which you desire to assert, you shall nonetheless respond to each part of the Request that does not invade the asserted privilege. As to each part for which any privilege is claimed, state the basis for the assertion of the privilege and sufficient information to apprise the parties of the nature and extent of the privilege asserted.

15. The conjunctives “and” and “or” as used in these Requests shall be construed both conjunctively and disjunctively and shall include the other.

16. Every word written in the singular shall be construed as plural and every word written in the plural shall be construed as singular where necessary to facilitate complete answers to these Requests.

17. Any word or phrase not specifically defined herein shall be read to have a common meaning as used in ordinary language.

18. The term "person" is used in its broadest possible sense and includes a natural person, corporation, firm, association, business, trust, or governmental or other public entity.

19. To "identify a person" who is an individual means to state his/her full name, his/her present business and residential address (or if unknown, the last known business and/or residential address), his/her business affiliations, positions, and business address at all relevant times.

20. To "state the basis" of a claim, allegation, statement, denial or defense means to provide a detailed summary of the facts, information and matters which you believe support the claim, allegation, statement, denial or defense.

21. The term "Computer" includes but is not limited to network servers, desktops, laptops, notebook computers, tablets, iPods, employees' home computers, mainframes, PDAs (personal digital assistants, such as PalmPilot, Cassiopeia, HP Jornada and other such handheld computing devices), digital cell phones and pagers.

22. The terms "Electronically Stored Information" or "ESI" includes but is not limited to all information stored in both mainframe and personal computers, on CD-ROMs, flash cards, memory sticks, and other storage media, in home and laptop computers, in backup files, in retired computers ("legacy" data), on mobile handheld devices, as well as online. Types of ESI include email, voicemail, word processed documents, spreadsheets, instant messages, databases, and datasets. Word processed documents are to be produced in their native format (.DOC for Microsoft Word, .WPD for WordPerfect) along with all relevant metadata; email is to be produced in its native format (.PST for Outlook, .NSF for Lotus Notes, .DBX for Outlook Express) along with all relevant metadata; spreadsheets are to be produced in their native format along with all relevant metadata; voice mail is to be produced in a common sound format such as .WAV or .MP3 along with all relevant metadata; instant messages are to be produced in plain text in an ASCII or word-processor-compatible format along with all relevant metadata; databases include all data libraries, templates, and configuration files required to load and run the database, and are to be produced in a reasonably usable format; any other type of electronically stored information, not specifically addressed above, is to be produced in a reasonably usable format.

23. The term "documents" is intended to be comprehensive and to include, without limitation, ESI, schedules, letters, reports, memoranda, records, studies, notices, recordings, photographs, papers, charts, analyses, graphs, indices, data sheets, notes, notebooks, diaries, forms, manuals, brochures, lists, publications, drafts, minutes, credits, debits, claim sheets, accounting records, accounting worksheets, telegrams, stenographic notes, policy statements, mechanical and electrical sound recordings or transcripts of those recordings, telephone diaries, microfilm, microfiche, videotape, litigation proceedings in progress, Computer runs and printouts, or any documents necessary to the comprehension or understanding of any Computer runs, such as a code for computer runs or a printed or recorded matter of any kind and includes but is not limited to any electronically stored data on magnetic or optical storage media as an “active” file or files (readily readable by one or more Computer applications or forensics software); any “deleted” but recoverable electronic files on said media; any electronic file fragments (files that have been deleted and partially overwritten with new data); and slack (data fragments stored randomly from random access memory on a hard drive during the normal operation of a computer [RAM slack] or residual data left on the hard drive after new data has overwritten some but not all of previously stored data). This definition applies without regard to whether the document is in your custody or possession or under your control.

24. To “identify a document” means to state with respect thereto:
  - a. the title of the document;
  - b. the date appearing thereon and the date of the document’s preparation, if known;
  - c. the name and title (if known) of the document’s author(s) and signer(s);
  - d. the name(s) and address(es) of the person(s) to whom the document was addressed and distributed;
  - e. the substance of the document in sufficient detail to enable it to be identified;
  - f. the physical location of the original document (and of any copies which you have knowledge) and the name(s) and address(es) of the custodian(s) thereof; and
  - g. whether the document voluntarily will be made available by you for inspection or copying.

In lieu of the foregoing subparagraphs (a) through (g), you may append to your answers a copy of each and every document so identified, identifying by control number which documents are responsive to the inquiry.

If any document of which identification is sought has been lost or destroyed, state, in addition to the information required above, whether such document was (a) lost, or (b) destroyed, and if lost, state the circumstances under which document was lost and, if destroyed, state the circumstances under which such document was destroyed and identify each person responsible for or participating in such document's loss or destruction.

25. To "produce a document" or to "produce copies of a document" means to produce any documents that are in your custody, possession, or control. If a privilege is claimed as to any document, provide the information called for in identifying the document and state separately for each document claimed to be privileged the reason for the claim of the privilege.

26. If you attempt to answer any interrogatory by production of documents, you must specifically identify by control number which documents are responsive to which interrogatory, including the subsection thereof, as required by Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

PLAINTIFFS' FIRST SET OF WRITTEN DISCOVERY TO DEFENDANT TYSON QUICK

Case No. 2:12-cv-00380-RS

Judge Robert J. Shelby

Pursuant to Rules 33, 34 and 36 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiffs Excitement Dietetics, LLC and R. Walker Companies, LLC, by and through counsel, hereby submits to Defendant Tyson Quick the following First Set of Written Discovery (referred to hereinafter as the "Requests"). You are required within thirty (30) days of service hereof to respond, under oath and in writing, to each of the following interrogatories, and to produce for inspection and copying at the offices of BENNETT TUELLER JOHNSON & DEERE, 3165 East Millrock Drive, Suite 500, Salt Lake City, Utah 84121, the documents described in the following requests for production of documents.

You are also required to respond in writing to the specific enumerated Requests for Admission within thirty (30) days of service hereof. The matters contained in the Requests for Admission shall be deemed admitted unless said responses are served within thirty (30) days after service of the same.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. The terms “Defendant,” “Tyson,” “Mr. Quick,” “you,” or “your” shall refer to Defendant Tyler Quick, his agents, attorneys, consultants, investigators or other representatives, and all other persons acting on his behalf.
2. The term “Excitement” shall refer to Plaintiff Excitement Dietetics, LLC.
3. The term “RWC” shall refer to Plaintiff R. Walker Companies, LLC.
4. The term “Plaintiffs” shall refer collectively to Excitement and RWC.
5. The term “Tyler” shall refer to Defendant Tyler Quick.
6. The term “Tilman” shall refer to Defendant William Patrick Tilman.
7. The term “Stevenson” shall refer to Defendant Donald Scott Stevenson.
8. The term “Mesiab” shall refer to Kevin Mesiab.
9. The term “Phenphedrine Mark” shall refer to the federally registered trademark PHENPHEDRINE® (U.S. Reg. No. 3,814,457).
10. The term “Apidexin Mark” shall refer to the federally registered trademark APIDEXIN® (U.S. Reg. No. 3,683,090).

11. The term "Marks" shall refer to the Phenphedrine Mark and Apidexin Mark collectively.

12. You are required to answer these Requests to the extent of all information that is available or may be available to you or any person, firm, corporation, or other entity acting on your behalf and not merely information within your personal knowledge. If any information called for by any of these Requests is not available in the full detail requested, such Request shall be deemed to require you to set forth the information related to the subject matter of the Request in such detail as is available, including and describing the method by which any estimate is made.

13. These Requests are deemed to be continuing discovery requests to the fullest extent contemplated by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. With respect to any of the following Requests as to which you, after answering, acquire additional information, knowledge, or documents, you are requested to provide further answers to such Requests immediately after acquiring such additional information, knowledge or documents.

14. If you believe that all or any part of these Requests would invade any privilege which you desire to assert, you shall nonetheless respond to each part of the Request that does not invade the asserted privilege. As to each part for which any privilege is claimed, state the basis for the assertion of the privilege and sufficient information to apprise the parties of the nature and extent of the privilege asserted.

15. The conjunctives "and" and "or" as used in these Requests shall be construed both conjunctively and disjunctively and shall include the other.

16. Every word written in the singular shall be construed as plural and every word written in the plural shall be construed as singular where necessary to facilitate complete answers to these Requests.

17. Any word or phrase not specifically defined herein shall be read to have a common meaning as used in ordinary language.

18. The term "person" is used in its broadest possible sense and includes a natural person, corporation, firm, association, business, trust, or governmental or other public entity.

19. To "identify a person" who is an individual means to state his/her full name, his/her present business and residential address (or if unknown, the last known business and/or residential address), his/her business affiliations, positions, and business address at all relevant times.

20. To "state the basis" of a claim, allegation, statement, denial or defense means to provide a detailed summary of the facts, information and matters which you believe support the claim, allegation, statement, denial or defense.

21. The term "Computer" includes but is not limited to network servers, desktops, laptops, notebook computers, tablets, iPods, employees' home computers, mainframes, PDAs (personal digital assistants, such as PalmPilot, Cassiopeia, HP Jornada and other such handheld computing devices), digital cell phones and pagers.

22. The terms "Electronically Stored Information" or "ESI" includes but is not limited to all information stored in both mainframe and personal computers, on CD-ROMs, flash cards, memory sticks, and other storage media, in home and laptop computers, in backup files, in retired computers ("legacy" data), on mobile handheld devices, as well as online. Types of ESI include email, voicemail, word processed documents, spreadsheets, instant messages, databases, and datasets. Word processed documents are to be produced in their native format (.DOC for Microsoft Word, .WPD for WordPerfect) along with all relevant metadata; email is to be produced in its native format (.PST for Outlook, .NSF for Lotus Notes, .DBX for Outlook Express) along with all relevant metadata; spreadsheets are to be produced in their native format along with all relevant metadata; voice mail is to be produced in a common sound format such as .WAV or .MP3 along with all relevant metadata; instant messages are to be produced in plain text in an ASCII or word-processor-compatible format along with all relevant metadata; databases include all data libraries, templates, and configuration files required to load and run the database, and are to be produced in a reasonably usable format; any other type of electronically stored information, not specifically addressed above, is to be produced in a reasonably usable format.

23. The term "documents" is intended to be comprehensive and to include, without limitation, ESI, schedules, letters, reports, memoranda, records, studies, notices, recordings, photographs, papers, charts, analyses, graphs, indices, data sheets, notes, notebooks, diaries, forms, manuals, brochures, lists, publications, drafts, minutes, credits, debits, claim sheets, accounting records, accounting worksheets, telegrams, stenographic notes, policy statements, mechanical and electrical sound recordings or transcripts of those recordings, telephone diaries, microfilm, microfiche, videotape, litigation proceedings in progress, Computer runs and printouts, or any documents necessary to the comprehension or understanding of any Computer runs, such as a code for computer runs or a printed or recorded matter of any kind and includes but is not limited to any electronically stored data on magnetic or optical storage media as an “active” file or files (readily readable by one or more Computer applications or forensics software); any “deleted” but recoverable electronic files on said media; any electronic file fragments (files that have been deleted and partially overwritten with new data); and slack (data fragments stored randomly from random access memory on a hard drive during the normal operation of a computer [RAM slack] or residual data left on the hard drive after new data has overwritten some but not all of previously stored data). This definition applies without regard to whether the document is in your custody or possession or under your control.

24. To “identify a document” means to state with respect thereto:

- a. the title of the document;
- b. the date appearing thereon and the date of the document’s preparation, if known;
- c. the name and title (if known) of the document’s author(s) and signer(s);
- d. the name(s) and address(es) of the person(s) to whom the document was addressed and distributed;
- e. the substance of the document in sufficient detail to enable it to be identified;
- f. the physical location of the original document (and of any copies which you have knowledge) and the name(s) and address(es) of the custodian(s) thereof; and
- g. whether the document voluntarily will be made available by you for inspection or copying.

In lieu of the foregoing subparagraphs (a) through (g), you may append to your answers a copy of each and every document so identified, identifying by control number which documents are responsive to the inquiry.

If any document of which identification is sought has been lost or destroyed, state, in addition to the information required above, whether such document was (a) lost, or (b) destroyed, and if lost, state the circumstances under which document was lost and, if destroyed, state the circumstances under which such document was destroyed and identify each person responsible for or participating in such document's loss or destruction.

25. To "produce a document" or to "produce copies of a document" means to produce any documents that are in your custody, possession, or control. If a privilege is claimed as to any document, provide the information called for in identifying the document and state separately for each document claimed to be privileged the reason for the claim of the privilege.

26. If you attempt to answer any interrogatory by production of documents, you must specifically identify by control number which documents are responsive to which interrogatory, including the subsection thereof, as required by Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
